Mrs. Oswald Calls
Son 'Unsung Hero'

NEW YORK, Feb. 18 (UPI)—Mrs. Marguerite Oswald said yesterday she is convinced her son, the accused assassin of President Kennedy, is an "unsung hero" who gave his life for his country as a "government agent"—possibly with the Central Intelligence Agency.

She also said that if Jack Ruby is convicted of killing her son she hopes that he will receive a light jail sentence and not be sent to the electric chair.

"I am opposed to capital punishment," Mrs. Oswald said. "If he is found insane, I sincerely hope that he will get the best of treatment."
